

Subscription Member Invitation to The Optical Society of Japan

The Optical Society of Japan
President Kazuo Kuroda

Itabashi City Information Processing Center 5F
2-65-6 Itabashi, Tokyo 173-0004, Japan
E-mail: info@myOSJ.or.jp

The Optical Society of Japan was established on September 2, 2014 and come into action from January, 2015. Established many activities, such as publishing “KOGAKU” the Japanese journal of optics and “Optical Review” the international journal of optics, holding an annual meeting “Optics & Photonics Japan”, “Optical Symposium” and “Winter Seminar”, supporting activities of research groups, awarding programs for encouraging member's research, are taken over from the former society (the division of The Japan Society of Applied Physics). We recommend with confidence you to subscribe to monthly journal of “KOGAKU” and to the bimonthly journal of “Optical Review”.

[ Benefits for Subscription Members ]

1. Monthly subscription of “KOGAKU” the Japanese journal of optics.
2. Proceedings of “Optics & Photonics Japan” on CD-ROM will be provided at member's request.

[ Annual membership fee for Subscription Members ]

15,000 JPY / unit (Please pay the fee in advance.)

* More than one units of application is welcomed. Member can request to increase the numbers of additional materials (Proceedings of “Optics & Photonics Japan” on CD-ROM) within the limits of the number of applications.

** Notice for the booksellers : the delivery destination is limited to a research institute and an educational institution.

■■ Attention ■■

Bimonthly international journal of optics “Optical Review” is now distributing from Springer as an electric edition, and a printed edition is no more provided. For the subscription of the electronic edition of “Optical Review”, contract through a domestic sales agency is required.